1. Only A PK school of the Volkspolizei (VP) is located in Jorgau (N 52/A 64). Political and cultural staff personnel are trained there in seven-month courses. These so-called PK-Bearbeiter have authority equal to that of commanders of VP units. Training at the school emphasizes political indoctrination. There is also drill with automatic arms, carbines and pistols.
2. The first training course, which started in late 1949, is scheduled to close at the end of June 1950. A second course was to be started in early May 1950. Civilians of the 1925 through 1933 classes were enrolled in the second course, but only VP personnel will attend the third course, which is to start early in 1951. Married men and former PWs who were in the custody of the Western Powers are barred from following a PK career.
